The Revenue Commissioner,

D.O. No CC (A) 24/29-30 Dt 29.10.1929.

States that there are at present three Officers belonging to the Civil Service, in the Accounts Department ie Messrs K. Subba Rao, M. Shamanna, and R. Puttaraj urs, that it is not desirable to keep these Officers indefinitely in the Accounts Department and prevent them from acquiring personal experience of actual executive work and active habits fairly early in life and recommends the transfer of either Mr Puttaraj urs or of Mr M Shamanna, who have been both in the Comptroller's Office for more than five years, immediately to the Revenue Department.

Submitted for orders.

2/11 When Mr K. Subba Rao completed his training in the Comptroller's Office and was absorbed into the regular Scale of the Account Dept. recently (30.7.29) the Comptroller was asked if he would spare one of the older officers for the general line. He pleaded that in view of the increase in the number of posts of Gazetted officers in the Dept. it was desirable to increase the Civil Service element by one and this has been agreed to & for Madhava Rao to the Comptroller's office for training has also been ordered and he may join in December. It will however be ~~[illegible]~~ two years before he will be given an Asst. Comptroller's charge.

The Rev. Comr points out that Messrs. M. Shamanna & R. Puttaraj who have been in the Account Dept for over 5 years. (It may ~~[illegible]~~ be stated that Mr. B.S. Raghavendra Rao also has been in the Dept. throughout.)

The Comptroller & Fin Secy may perhaps be consulted if ~~[illegible]~~ any of the officers can be spared immediately.

Re: withdrawal of Asst. Comrs. from Account Dept to general line

As pointed out by the Revenue Commissioner, some officers of the Civil Service now in the Account Department have been there for over 5 years. It seems desirable to withdraw them at an early opportunity, as their efficiency for holding higher posts in the general line is likely to be impaired if they are kept out of the executive line continuously for very long periods.

Please keep in view

Considerable difficulty is experienced at present in regard to the posting of Civilian Officers to and the Account Department, in view of the fact that under the existing rules a long period of preliminary training (for some 2 years) is prescribed before an officer can hold a regular charge in the Department, and after completion of such training he is expected to continue in the Department for 4 years more (6 years in all). Provision has no doubt been made for having one Assistant Commissioner under training always, but it would take a very long time before new trained officers would become available to take the place of the older civilians in the Department. It seems to be desirable to curtail the period of preliminary training to say 6 months or 12 at the most, and to limit the length of stay in the Department to about 3 years. It would also be convenient if for some time to come, two junior Assistant Commissioners (instead of one as at present) are posted for training in Accounts, so as to facilitate the withdrawal of the older officers at an early date. It has already been decided to post Mr.N.Madhava Rao, and one more officer may be selected.

Of the 2 officers (Messrs.R.Puttaraj Urs and M.Shamanna) referred to by the Revenue Commissioner, as being in the Accounts Department for over 5 years, Mr.Puttaraj Urs has long been requesting for a transfer to the Judicial Department. He is a Law Graduate, was a Magistrate for some time, and the Chief Court was also requested to try him as a Munsiff, though this has not been given effect to. There is a proposal to take Mr.K.Basavaraj Urs, Munsiff to the Revenue Department and it is understood that the Chief Judge has no objection to this. If approved, Mr.Basavaraj Urs may be taken to Revenue Department and Mr.Puttaraj Urs posted to the Judicial Department instead, the interchange being on a temporary basis for one year if considered necessary. The transfer of Mr.M.Shamanna from the Accounts Department may be taken up some time later.

(Vide linked file)

The points for orders are:-

(1) Interchange of officers between the Civil Service and Judicial Department — (Mr.R.Puttaraj Urs and Mr.K.Basavaraj Urs.)

(2) Making provision for posting one more officer to the Comptroller's Office for training.

(3) Curtailing of the period of preliminary training prescribed, from 2 years to 6 months or 12 months at the most, and also the period of stay in the Department today.

Mr K. Basavaraj urs may be taken to the Rev Dept ~~as an Asst Comrs~~. & Mr Puttaraj urs posted as Kunigal in his place. It is understood that the Chief Judge is agreeable to this arrangement. The comptroller will be asked whether Mr Puttaraj urs could be spared immediately.

The comptroller may also be informed that it is proposed to take back to the general line Mr B.S. Raghavendra Rao & Mr M.S. Shamanna and that he might make arrangements to train other officers to take their places — within a period of 2 years.

Mr. B. S. Raghavendra Rao.	Fl. Assistant to Chief Elec. Engr.
Mr. M. Shamanna Mr. R. Puttaraj Urs.	Assistant Auditors Mysore Railways.
Mr. K. Subba Rao	On deputation in connection with the Viceroy's Visit-& subsequently.

Under the standing orders, Assistant Commissioners who have served in the Account Department for over five years may be transferred back to the general line so that they may pick up sufficient experience in different branches of the Service..

Messrs M- Shamanna and R. Puttaraj Urs have been in the Account Department for five years but they have failed to pass the Departmental examination. The Comptroller considers that it is desirable to give them one more opportunity to pass the examination by keeping them in the Account Department till May next. In the circumstances explained in Mr. Shamanna's letter of the 19th instant, it is not desirable to take away Mr. R. Puttaraj Urs immediately from the Railway Audit Office. It may be possible to spare Mr. Puttaraj Urs after June 1930. ~~The question of sending back~~

DEWAN'S OFFICE 1929 No. 9855

Experience has shown that the provision of one Assistant Commissioner under training in the Account Department is quite inadequate to arrange for the timely replacement of Assistant Commissioners entitled to be transferred back to the general line after five years' service in the Account Department. We want a larger number of Assistant Commissioners fully qualified for work in the Account and Finance Departments, to be available to take up sanctioned posts in the subordinate and higher grades. I would suggest that for the next three years the Comptroller's Office may be allowed two Assistant Commissioners under training instead of one. If this proposal meets with approval, necessary provision may be made therefor in the next year's estimates.

Submitted to His Highness.

The scale of the Mysore Civil Service provides for 4 posts of Assistant Comptrollers being held by Assistant Commissioners. Provision has also been made for keeping one more Assistant Commissioner under training in the Comptroller's Office so that as each new officer finishes his training, he may be able to take the place of a trained civilian in the department and release the latter for being posted to general duty.

2. In view of the increase in the number of gazetted posts of the Account Department sanctioned in recent years, the Comptroller has been urging the need for strengthening the Civil Service element in the department. At the same time difficulty is being experienced in withdrawing from the Account Department Assistant Commissioners who have finished their term of service in the department, for want of fresh trained officers who could replace them. To keep them too long in the Account Department would be depriving them of the opportunity of acquiring the varied experience necessary for a Civil Service Officer to hold the higher posts in the general line. To remedy this state of affairs the Financial Secretary suggests that, for the next three years, two officers (instead of one as at present) may be posted to the Account Department for training.

3. The question was considered in Council on the 13th instant and the Council are of opinion that the proposal of the Financial Secretary may be approved. The recommendation of the Council may be graciously sanctioned.

OFFICE OF THE REVENUE COMMISSIONER IN MYSORE,

Dated, Bangalore, the 28th October 1929

29 K CB. 7-29-32

CB 1667.

My dear Ranga Rao,

In the Accounts Department, there are at present 3 officers belonging to the Civil Service. Mr. K. Subba Rao, B.A., who has been under training in the Comptroller's Office from 30-7-1927, has completed his training and it is proposed to keep him on in the Comptroller's Office. Mr. M. Shamanna has been there since 29-4-1924. This officer was entertained in service on 22nd January 1920. Thus, he has spent nearly 5½ years in the Comptroller's Office. Mr. R. Puttaraj Urs has also been there since 1-8-1924.

2. I have no objection to the prolonged retention of Assistant Commissioners attached to the Comptroller's Office in that office, in case the idea is to keep these officers permanently in that Department. But as this does not seem to be the object, it is not desirable to keep these officers indefinitely in the Accounts Department and prevent them from acquiring personal experience of actual executive work and active habits fairly early in life. I discussed the matter with the Comptroller, Mr. S. Shamanna. He seemed in a way inclined to spare one of these officers. In any case, I consider that it will be in the interests of the service to allow these officers to acquire the necessary executive experience without further delay, and transfer either Mr. Puttaraj Urs or Mr. Shamanna who have been both in the Comptroller's Office for more than 5 years, immediately to the Revenue Department. The services of one or both these officers may be made available at least with effect from 1st December 1929, as there are important Sub Divisions for which I find it difficult to post suitable men.

Yours sincerely,

Dear Mr Srinivasa Iyengar,

I am in receipt of your D.O. 55 dated 18.12.29.

It is desirable to give Messrs. Shamanna & Patla Rey Ekr another opportunity to pass the dept. Exn by retaining them in this department at least till they went. From my discussions with them during the last Dussera my impression is that I was able to convince them about the desirability of passing this Exn before they left the department.
